Australia

Australia is currently the third most popular destination for international students in the English-speaking world, behind the United States and the UK. Many international students choose to study there because of the cultural diversity, friendly natives, and high quality of education

Victoria - Melbourne

Melbourne is rated the world's most livable city and is known for its cosmopolitan, multicultural communities and excellent cultural, food, fashion and entertainment activities and destinations. Victoria boasts a concentration of education and research infrastructure that is unrivalled in the region. Ten world-leading universities have cutting-edge facilities, academic staff with international experience, and outstanding student services. It has 5 of Australia's top 20 universities, one of the world's top 30, and 2 universities in the world's top 100.

High quality vocational education and training institutions offer industry relevant, practical training and skills development in close connections with industry that ensures graduates have the skills demanded by employers. VET and university institutions also work together to create credit pathways that increase entry and exit points for students and have the advantage of dual qualifications and smoother transition into higher education studies.

Victorian universities and VET providers also dominate and lead the country in the delivery of educational services offshore and this is testament to the global recognition of the programs.

Climate

Melbourne may be known for its fickle weather - the city has been described as having four seasons in one day - but it can still be enjoyed all year round. Plan ahead with this information on temperature and rainfall.

Summer (December – February)

Melbourne warms up in summer with mean temperatures between 14 - 25.3°C

Autumn (March – May)

Autumn sees cooler weather with average temperatures ranging from 10.9 – 20.3°C

Winter (June – August)

In winter, average temperatures range from 6.5 - 14.2°C

Spring (September – November)

During spring average temperatures range from 9.6 - 19.6°C

Cultural Diversity

Many international students are drawn to Australia because it is a young, vibrant, and most of all, friendly country. It is one of the most culturally diverse countries in the world. People from about 200 countries have migrated to Australia. This is reflected in the country's food, lifestyle, cultural practices, and experience. The diversity of cultural influences creates a lively and innovative environment. Australians appreciate the value that international students bring to their country. They have been known to take great care in looking after international students and helping them adjust to their new homes. Australian culture is forward-thinking and outward-looking. In fact, the Australian emblems - the emu and kangaroo - were selected due to the fact that these animals are incapable of moving backwards - much like the country itself.

There are numerous cultural events and attractions every day of the year such as;

- Melbourne's Arts Precinct presents international exhibitions, art galleries, theatres, music venues, public art, studios, creative co-working spaces and more.
- Federation Square, an open meeting place, surrounded by shops, galleries, dining, and events. Sit back and watch the big screen!
- Sports arenas that are host to events including the iconic MCG (AFL), Marvel Stadium (sporting codes, entertainment events, concerts and even religious service), Melbourne and Olympic Parks (Australian Open tennis championship)
- The Spring Racing Carnival spans three months of thrilling Victorian racing across the state Tradition. Prestige. History. Three words that go some way towards explaining the enduring appeal of the Spring Racing Carnival or Melbourne Cup!
- Who can forget the Queen Victoria Market! (night market, variety of cultural food)

Transport

Melbourne's public transport system includes a network of trams, buses and trams.

Tram travel is free in Melbourne's central business district and inner city. There are signs on the tram stops to tell you where the free tram zone begins and ends. Most tram drivers also announce when you are entering or leaving the free tram zone.

A myki card lets you travel on any mode of public transport around Melbourne and on regional trains and some buses. Eligible students at participating universities, colleges and schools can buy an iUSE pass. The iUSEpass saves you 50 per cent on an annual full fare ticket. The pass is valid for the entire year. For more information visit <https://www.ptv.vic.gov.au/tickets/myki/concessions-and-free-travel/children-and-students/international-students/>

Travel

During semester breaks, you may like to venture beyond the capital cities to experience more of Australia's spectacular natural environment and great physical beauty—national parks, The Great Barrier Reef, Kakadu and the Tasmanian Wilderness.

Money and Banking

Australian currency is the only legal tender in Australia. When students first arrive, money from other countries can be changed at the exchange facilities located at international airports, banks and major hotels. Travelers' cheques are easier to use if already in Australian dollars, however, banks will cash travelers' cheques in virtually any currency. Major hotels and some shops, depending on individual store policy, will also cash travelers' cheques. You will need to provide visa details and evidence of residency. Banking services in Australia are extremely competitive. All major banks have branches in cities and regional centers. You can set up a bank account before you arrive in Australia or after you get here. Most banks are open Monday to Friday from 9.30 am to 4.00 pm. Some are also open later on Friday afternoons and on Saturday mornings.

Orientation

Once enrolment has been confirmed, all students will be required to attend compulsory orientation for before the commencement of the course. The orientation will be conducted in an age and culturally appropriate manner. The purpose of this session is to enable students to familiarise themselves with the campus, facilities, the surrounding area and amenities available and meet ICV's key personnel

Credit Transfer and RPL

The AQF facilitates the progression of students through qualifications by giving credit for learning outcomes they already have achieved. Credit transfer is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications.

ICV can take into consideration an individual's existing skills and knowledge as acquired in a practical, non-formal or formal learning setting as a means of assessing whether that person can demonstrate the required competencies associated with the relevant Australian standards. Students can apply for credit transfer or PRL using the Credit Transfer or RPL Application Form available from the reception desk and ICV website. Evidence of AQF certification documentation as mentioned above, must accompany the application. For more information, please refer to website link at

<http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Credit-Transfer-Policy-and-Procedure-V2.2.pdf>

Course Delivery and Resources

A number of approaches to course delivery are used by staff. Course delivery approaches may include: teacher led classroom delivery, workshops, practical, field trips, tutorials and self-paced study. During class time students will be expected to participate in discussions, demonstrating tasks or, working with others in groups.

ICV trainers are experienced, passionate and committed with many years of academic and professional experience. They are passionate about training and committed to making your learning experience positive and rewarding. Trainers will distribute a range of resources relevant to the course content that aids students to achieve their learning outcomes. These include but not limited to; Learner guides, textbooks, PPT, fact sheets, videos, simulated environment as well as industry codes of practices and standards.

Attendance

Classes at ICV are scheduled for 20 hours of face to face contact per week. Overseas students must attend a minimum of 80 per cent of the scheduled course contact hours.

Assessment and Reassessment

A number of approaches to course assessment are used by International College of Victoria. Assessment approaches may be undertaken by practical demonstrations, case studies, projects, assignments, presentations and role plays. There are two (2) assessment outcomes on the successful completion of a unit of competency that forms part of the qualification, C – Competent or NC – Not Competent. Students who have obtained an outcome of NC are afforded up to 2 reassessment opportunities before incurring any additional fees.

Plagiarism

Acts of plagiarism, collusion and cheating are not permitted in any work completed for assessment. All works submitted must be an accurate reflection of the student's level of competence. It means using someone else's work (ideas, words, graphics) and claiming it as your work. It is a breach of ICV's code of conduct and where a student is found to be engaging in these acts may have their enrolment suspended or cancelled.

Qualification Issuance

ICV will only issue qualifications and Statements of Attainment to those students whom have been assessed as meeting the required outcomes of a qualification, unit of competency or module, as specified in the relevant Training Package or VET accredited Course. ICV will issue qualification and statements of attainment within 30 calendar days of the student being assessed as meeting the training package requirement, payment of outstanding fees and a verified USI. Re-Issuance of AQF certification is subject to the applicable fees

Student Support

ICV recognises the challenges students may experience being away from home. Settling into student life in Australia is different for everyone, which is why we offer support and welfare services to overseas students. Our dedicated team are available to help you transition to your new surroundings and to help keep you focused on your studies.

ICV provides current and accurate information about the services available through orientations sessions. The support and welfare services are free of charge, however there may be fees and charges involved where an external service is used by the student. Please refer to student support and welfare policy for more details available on ICV website <http://www.icv.edu.au/policies-and-procedures-2/>.

Orientation

Once enrolment has been confirmed, all students will be required to attend compulsory orientation for before the commencement of the course. The orientation will be conducted in an age and culturally appropriate manner. The purpose of this session is to enable students to familiarise themselves with the campus, facilities, the surrounding area and amenities available and meet ICV's key personnel

Student Safety

If there are any security issues which are causing you concern, please advise the Student Support Officer, Trainer or any member of staff. In the meantime, keep these helpful tips in mind:

- avoid confrontation - it is better and safer to walk away if you are being provoked
- if you feel you are being followed, cross the street, and if you are still worried, move as quickly as possible to a public area (such as a restaurant) and then telephone for help
- at night, walk in pairs in well-lit areas and on busier streets, not dark alleyways and side streets, Walk confidently and at a steady pace
- have your keys ready before you reach the door of your car or house
- if travelling by bus or tram at night, try not to wait alone at the bus or tram stops.

Arrange for others to meet you at your home stop if you are returning late and have a long way to walk home

- if you are travelling by train at night, do not sit in an empty carriage. Try to sit near groups of people in a well-lit area
- check the time of the last train, bus or tram home to avoid being stranded at night
- avoid walking alone after getting off public transport at night
- consider carrying a personal attack alarm
- if you are going somewhere alone, ensure some is aware of your movements

Student Visa Obligations

Your responsibilities as an international student in Australia. As an international student on a student visa, you must:

- comply with your student visa conditions
- ensure you have and continue to maintain your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for as long as you stay in Australia on a student visa
- tell your institution if you change your address or other contact details
- meet the terms of your written agreement with your education institution
- maintain satisfactory course progress and attendance.

Information about visa conditions for student visa holders is available on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection's website at www.border.gov.au/Trav/Stud/More/Visa-conditions/visa-conditionsstudents, or call 131 881 on Monday – Friday from 8.30am to 4pm inside Australia (except public holidays). Australian laws protect international students. As a student on a student visa, you benefit from Australian laws that ensure high standards of education, facilities and support services while you are in Australia. You also have rights to information about your course and the institution you wish to study with before and during your enrolment. The Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) framework offers you financial protection in case your education institution does not deliver what it has promised you. You can find out more about the framework at <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Documents/esosstudentfactsheetv4%20-%20Final%20clean%20copy.pdf>

Overseas Health Cover (OSHC)

International students undertaking formal studies in Australia, and their dependents (for example, spouses and children under 18 years old), must obtain OSHC. It includes cover for visits to the doctor, some hospital treatment, ambulance cover and limited pharmaceuticals (medicines). OSHC insurers can provide a range of different OSHC products. These may range from a basic product which covers only the compulsory minimum services to comprehensive products which cover, in addition to the compulsory minimum services, extra services as specified under the particular policy. For more information visit, www.privatehealth.gov.au/.

Attendance

Australian law requires International students to study at a full-time study load. Overseas students must attend a minimum of 80 per cent of the scheduled course contact hours.

Course Progress and Intervention

ICV monitor student's course progress to ensure the achievement of academic requirements. At the end of each study period (term), ICV will monitor, record and assess the progress of each overseas student to ensure the student is in a position to complete the course within the expected duration specified on the overseas student's Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). International students are required to maintain satisfactory course progress throughout their study periods. Students at risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress in a term (providing the term is not the second consecutive term for which this is the case), and is subject to an intervention strategy. Students being assessed as not meeting course progress and/or if a student is unable to demonstrate that they will be able to complete the required assessment or units half way during the second consecutive study period will be reported to the Department of Home Affairs for unsatisfactory course progress. For more information, please refer to website link at <http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Monitoring-Course-Progress-Policy-2.5.pdf>

Current Contact Details

Students are required while in Australia and studying, to inform ICV of their current residential address, mobile number (if any) and email address (if any) as well as who to contact in emergency situations and that any changes to those details must be reported to ICV within 7 days of the change. Additional information on student visa is available on the Department of Home Affairs web site at www.homeaffairs.gov.au. Keeping your contact details up to date means that you will receive all necessary communication. ICV will remind you to update your details every 6 months.

School Aged Dependents

Victorian government schools have been welcoming international students for over 20 years. Our schools provide international students with a high-quality education, pathways to higher education and a genuine opportunity to succeed and achieve their dreams.

There are requirements for compulsory school attendance for children or dependents of international students. In Victoria, it is compulsory for children to attend school until the age of 16. The choice of schools includes public schools, private schools and religious schools.

With a choice of over 250 accredited primary and secondary schools, each offering a diverse curriculum and innovative teaching practices, the windows of opportunity are endless. You will be responsible for school fees and other costs including school uniforms, books, excursions and stationery. For more information visit www.education.vic.gov.au

Working in Australia

There are opportunities for students to gain casual or part-time work while studying in Australia. This is a great way to meet new people and make connections in the local area, while also helping to support yourself financially during your studies. Once your course has commenced, you are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight during study sessions and unlimited hours during study breaks.

Working in Australia Australian workplace laws provide basic protection and entitlements for all workers in Australia, including workers from overseas. International students have the same entitlements to minimum wages and conditions as Australian workers, as well as superannuation and workers' compensation under Australian workplace laws.

The minimum wages and conditions to which an employee is entitled are set out in awards (also known as modern awards). Awards apply to employees depending on the industry they work in or the job that they do. Awards don't apply when a business has an enterprise agreement or other registered agreement that covers the employee's working conditions. For more information on awards and agreements, visit www.fairwork.gov.au/awards-and-agreements.

Australian laws also protect you from being discriminated against at work, for example because of your race, when you are applying for a job, about to begin a job, or any time during your employment. For more information about discrimination at work, visit <https://www.fairwork.gov.au/employeeentitlements/protections-at-work/protection-from-discrimination-at-work> or <https://www.humanrights.gov.au/>.

The Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO) helps employers and employees to understand their rights and responsibilities at work. The FWO can also investigate suspected breaches of workplace laws. To find out what you should be paid and learn more about your minimum workplace entitlements you can visit www.fairwork.gov.au. You can also call 13 13 94 from 8am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday inside Australia (except public holidays).

Getting help to resolve a workplace issue will not automatically affect your student visa. You are limited to 40 hours of work per fortnight when your course is in session, and unlimited hours in out of session periods. This is to ensure you are mainly focused on your studies. Work conditions for student visa holders can be found immi.homeaffairs.gov.au
