Training and Assessment

Credit Transfer and RPL

The AQF facilitates the progression of students through qualifications by giving credit for learning outcomes they already have achieved. Credit transfer is a process that provides students with agreed and consistent credit outcomes for components of a qualification based on identified equivalence in content and learning outcomes between matched qualifications.

ICV can take into consideration an individual's existing skills and knowledge as acquired in a practical, non-formal or formal learning setting as a means of assessing whether that person can demonstrate the required competencies associated with the relevant Australian standards. Students can apply for credit transfer or PRL using the Credit Transfer or RPL Application Form available from the reception desk and ICV website. Evidence of AQF certification documentation as mentioned above, must accompany the application.

Course Delivery and Resources

A number of approaches to course delivery are used by staff. Course delivery approaches may include: teacher led classroom delivery, workshops, practical, field trips, tutorials and self-paced study. During class time students will be expected to participate in discussions, demonstrating tasks or, working with others in groups.

ICV trainers are experienced, passionate and committed with many years of academic and professional experience. They are passionate about training and committed to making your learning experience positive and rewarding. Trainers will distribute a range of resources relevant to the course content that aids students to achieve their learning outcomes. These include but not limited to; Learner guides, textbooks, PPT, fact sheets, videos, simulated environment as well as industry codes of practices and standards.

Attendance

Classes at ICV are scheduled for 20 hours of face to face contact per week. Overseas students must attend a minimum of 80 per cent of the scheduled course contact hours. Classroom sessions are designed to provide students with the essential knowledge and skills required for relevant units of competency. It is expected however that students will undertake additional reading and research. Student attendance is paramount to the successful progression and completion of learning and assessment outcomes.

ICV records attendance on a daily basis for the purpose of both learning and health and safety reasons. It is expected that students arrive to class on time and remain for the full duration. Should it be necessary for you to leave a class early – you must advise the trainer/assessor before the class commences. It is your responsibility to catch up on any work missed.

If you are going to be absent from a scheduled class or activity, please advise your trainer/assessor or contact International College of Victoria administration.

As a courtesy to others in class and the trainer/assessor, all students must be punctual throughout the training day, including returning from breaks to avoid any disruptions

Breaks

Your trainer will advise of timing for all breaks. Typically, though the following break times have been allocated, however these may vary subject to the learning activities or assessment being conducted

- 15 minutes' duration for - Morning and afternoon tea breaks
- 45 minutes' duration for - Lunch breaks

Dress and Hygiene Requirements

Students are to be well presented and appropriately dressed during all training. Dress requirements include:

- Neat, comfortable clothing in the classroom environment;
- Appropriate work attire, including personal protective clothing (PPE) for training in workplace or simulated environments;
- Appropriate footwear must be worn at all times;
- Since you will be working in close proximity with others, care with your personal hygiene (clothing, hair, deodorant, etc.) is requested.
- If you are participating in the Tarnet Workshop, it is essential that you are dressed in and/or bring with you all necessary PPE (safety shoes/hardhat/high visibility vest/safety glasses/toolbelt etc)

Make the most of your Training

It is very important to make the most of your training opportunity. Please note it is your responsibility to do this. To optimize your own learning and successful completion, undertake to do the following:

- Attend all training sessions and complete required reading and learning activities;
- Prepare well in advance of each training session;
- Be a willing participant in discussions/role plays/demonstrations;
- Raise questions
- Work with fellow learners;
- Respect other people's opinions;
- Ensure you have a clear understanding of the assessment requirements;
- Take responsibility for the quality of evidence that you submit to the Assessor;
- Keep track of your progress;
- Complete and submit all assessment on time, tasks using clear and concise language;
- Be willing to contact your trainer/assessor if you do not understand the training activity or assessment task.

As a courtesy to the Trainer/assessor and other students, mobile phones must be turned off during training. In an emergency where you need to be contacted, please advise your trainer/assessor so that arrangements can be made

Assessment and Reassessment

A number of approaches to course assessment are used by International College of Victoria. Assessment approaches may be undertaken by practical demonstrations, case studies, projects, assignments, presentations and role plays. There are two (2) assessment outcomes on the successful completion of a unit of competency that forms part of the qualification, C – Competent or NC – Not Competent. Students who have obtained an outcome of NC are afforded up to 2 reassessment opportunities before incurring any additional fees. It is expected that all assessment tasks are handed in on the due date. Should you require additional time to complete an assessment you must communicate with your assessor and apply for an extension

Reasonable adjustments

Students with disabilities are encouraged to discuss with International College of Victoria any 'reasonable adjustments' to learning and assessment processes which they consider would be necessary or assist them in the performance of their studies.

Careful consideration will be given to any requests for reasonable adjustment of this nature, and, where reasonably practicable, such adjustments will be made. There may however be circumstances where it will not be reasonable or reasonably practicable for the International College of Victoria to accommodate or where other adjustment may be more appropriate. Reasonable adjustments cannot compromise the integrity of competency-based training and assessment.

Plagiarism

Acts of plagiarism, collusion and cheating are not permitted in any work completed for assessment. All works submitted must be an accurate reflection of the student's level of competence. It means using someone else's work (ideas, words, graphics) and claiming it as your work. It is a breach of ICV's code of conduct and where a student is found to be engaging in these acts may have their enrolment suspended or cancelled.

Qualification Issuance

ICV will only issue qualifications and Statements of Attainment to those students whom have been assessed as meeting the required outcomes of a qualification, unit of competency or module, as specified in the relevant Training Package or VET accredited Course. ICV will issue qualification and statements of attainment within 30 calendar days of the student being assessed as meeting the training package requirement, payment of outstanding fees and a verified USI. Re-Issuance of AQF certification is subject to the applicable fees

Student Support

ICV recognises the challenges students may experience being away from home. Settling into student life in Australia is different for everyone, which is why we offer support and welfare services to overseas students. Our dedicated team are available to help you transition to your new surroundings and to help keep you focused on your studies.

ICV provides current and accurate information about the services available through orientations sessions. The support and welfare services are free of charge, however there may be fees and charges involved where an external service is used by the student. Please refer to student support and welfare policy for more details available on ICV website:

<http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Student-Support-and-Welfare-Services-3.2.pdf>

Orientation

Once enrolment has been confirmed, all students will be required to attend compulsory orientation for before the commencement of the course. The orientation will be conducted in an age and culturally appropriate manner. The purpose of this session is to enable students to familiarise themselves with the campus, facilities, the surrounding area and amenities available and meet ICV's key personnel

Student Safety

If there are any security issues which are causing you concern, please advise the Student Support Officer, Trainer or any member of staff. In the meantime, keep these helpful tips in mind:

- avoid confrontation - it is better and safer to walk away if you are being provoked
- if you feel you are being followed, cross the street, and if you are still worried, move as quickly as possible to a public area (such as a restaurant) and then telephone for help
- at night, walk in pairs in well-lit areas and on busier streets, not dark alleyways and side streets, Walk confidently and at a steady pace
- have your keys ready before you reach the door of your car or house
- if travelling by bus or tram at night, try not to wait alone at the bus or tram stops.

Arrange for others to meet you at your home stop if you are returning late and have a long way to walk home

- if you are travelling by train at night, do not sit in an empty carriage. Try to sit near groups of people in a well-lit area
- check the time of the last train, bus or tram home to avoid being stranded at night
- avoid walking alone after getting off public transport at night
- consider carrying a personal attack alarm
- if you are going somewhere alone, ensure some is aware of your movements

Critical Incidents

A Critical Incident as defined for the purpose of ISANA is as follows:

‘A tragic or traumatic event or situation affecting a student or staff member, which has the potential to cause unusually strong emotional reactions in the school/campus community.’ An event like this would require immediate attention to mitigate any negative impact on the health and welfare of those concerned.

ICV has a documented policy and procedure in relation to critical incidents that details the actions to be taken in the event of a critical incident, the required follow-up to the incident, the recording of the incident and the action taken. Critical incidents may include:

- i. missing students (student is not contactable for a period of time)
- ii. Death / suicide
- iii. severe verbal or psychological aggression
- iv. death, serious injury including any threats
- v. natural disaster; and
- vi. issues such as domestic violence, sexual assault, drug or alcohol abuse

Policies and Procedures

Deferment, Suspension and Cancellation

In certain circumstances, a student's enrolment at ICV may be deferred, temporarily suspended or cancelled, whether initiated by the student or the College. A student may initiate the deferment, suspension or cancellation of their enrolment due to compassionate and compelling circumstances. ICV can also initiate deferment, cancellation or suspension of a student's enrolment. For further details, please refer to ICV's Deferment, Suspension and Cancellation Policy and Procedure available on ICV Website.

<http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Deferment-Suspension-and-Cancellation-Policy-V2.2.pdf>

Complaints and Appeals

ICV will respond to complaints and appeals received by students with regard to their dealings with ICV, its trainers, assessors or other staff, its education agents or a learner. ICV will take all complaints and appeals seriously ensure the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the complaint and appeal process

The internal complaints and appeals processes are at no cost to the student.

All complaints and appeals will be acknowledged in writing within 5 working days of receipt.

The assessment of the complaint or appeal will commence within 10 working days of it being made and the outcome advised to the complainant in writing within 20 working days of receipt of the complaint, including reasons of the outcome. Where ICV considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, ICV will inform the complainant or appellant in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required, and regularly update the complainant or appellant on the progress of the matter

Where there is a requirement for a meeting to be arranged, the complainant/appellant may be accompanied and assisted by a support person

Where the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome, they will be advised of their right to an internal appeal at no cost. Where the complainant is not satisfied with the internal appeal outcome, they will be advised of their right to an external appeal. Please refer to Complaint and Appeal Policy and procedure for more details available at ICV website:

<http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Complaints-and-Appeals-Policy-V3.3.pdf>

Information about visa conditions for student visa holders is available on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection's website at www.border.gov.au/Trav/Stud/More/Visa-conditions/visa-conditionsstudents, or call 131 881 on Monday – Friday from 8.30am to 4pm inside Australia (except public holidays). Australian laws protect international students. As a student on a student visa, you benefit from Australian laws that ensure high standards of education, facilities and support services while you are in Australia. You also have rights to information about your course and the institution you wish to study with before and during your enrolment. The Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) framework offers you financial protection in case your education institution does not deliver what it has promised you. You can find out more about the framework at <https://internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Documents/esosstudentfactsheetv4%20-%20Final%20clean%20copy.pdf>

Overseas Health Cover (OSHC)

International students undertaking formal studies in Australia, and their dependents (for example, spouses and children under 18 years old), must obtain OSHC. It includes cover for visits to the doctor, some hospital treatment, ambulance cover and limited pharmaceuticals (medicines). OSHC insurers can provide a range of different OSHC products. These may range from a basic product which covers only the compulsory minimum services to comprehensive products which cover, in addition to the compulsory minimum services, extra services as specified under the particular policy. For more information visit, www.privatehealth.gov.au/.

Attendance

Australian law requires International students to study at a full-time study load. Overseas students must attend a minimum of 80 per cent of the scheduled course contact hours.

Course Progress and Intervention

ICV monitor student's course progress to ensure the achievement of academic requirements. At the end of each study period (term), ICV will monitor, record and assess the progress of each overseas student to ensure the student is in a position to complete the course within the expected duration specified on the overseas student's Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). International students are required to maintain satisfactory course progress throughout their study periods. Students at risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress in a term (providing the term is not the second consecutive term for which this is the case), and is subject to an intervention strategy. Students being assessed as not meeting course progress and/or if a student is unable to demonstrate that they will be able to complete the required assessment or units half way during the second consecutive study period will be reported to the Department of Home Affairs for unsatisfactory course progress. For more information, <http://icv.edu.au/wp-content/uploads/Monitoring-Course-Progress-Policy-2.5.pdf>

Current Contact Details

Students are required while in Australia and studying, to inform ICV of their current residential address, mobile number (if any) and email address (if any) as well as who to contact in emergency situations and that any changes to those details must be reported to ICV within 7 days of the change. Additional information on student visa is available on the Department of Home Affairs web site at www.homeaffairs.gov.au. Keeping your contact details up to date means that you will receive all necessary communication. ICV will remind you to update your details every 6 months.

School Aged Dependents

Victorian government schools have been welcoming international students for over 20 years. Our schools provide international students with a high-quality education, pathways to higher education and a genuine opportunity to succeed and achieve their dreams.

There are requirements for compulsory school attendance for children or dependents of international students. In Victoria, it is compulsory for children to attend school until the age of 16. The choice of schools includes public schools, private schools and religious schools.

With a choice of over 250 accredited primary and secondary schools, each offering a diverse curriculum and innovative teaching practices, the windows of opportunity are endless. You will be responsible for school fees and other costs including school uniforms, books, excursions and stationery. For more information visit www.education.vic.gov.au

Working in Australia

There are opportunities for students to gain casual or part-time work while studying in Australia. This is a great way to meet new people and make connections in the local area, while also helping to support yourself financially during your studies. Once your course has commenced, you are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight during study sessions and unlimited hours during study breaks.

Working in Australia Australian workplace laws provide basic protection and entitlements for all workers in Australia, including workers from overseas. International students have the same entitlements to minimum wages and conditions as Australian workers, as well as superannuation and workers' compensation under Australian workplace laws.

The minimum wages and conditions to which an employee is entitled are set out in awards (also known as modern awards). Awards apply to employees depending on the industry they work in or the job that they do. Awards don't apply when a business has an enterprise agreement or other registered agreement that covers the employee's working conditions. For more information on awards and agreements, visit www.fairwork.gov.au/awards-and-agreements.

Australian laws also protect you from being discriminated against at work, for example because of your race, when you are applying for a job, about to begin a job, or any time during your employment. For more information about discrimination at work, visit <https://www.fairwork.gov.au/employeeentitlements/protections-at-work/protection-from-discrimination-at-work> or <https://www.humanrights.gov.au/>.

The Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO) helps employers and employees to understand their rights and responsibilities at work. The FWO can also investigate suspected breaches of workplace laws. To find out what you should be paid and learn more about your minimum workplace entitlements you can visit www.fairwork.gov.au. You can also call 13 13 94 from 8am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday inside Australia (except public holidays).

Getting help to resolve a workplace issue will not automatically affect your student visa. You are limited to 40 hours of work per fortnight when your course is in session, and unlimited hours in out of session periods. This is to ensure you are mainly focused on your studies.
